

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE STATIC RANDOM ACCESS MEMORY
(SRAM) ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. M:07-cv-01819 CW
MDL No. 1819

SUPPLEMENTAL CASE
MANAGEMENT ORDER
NO. 1

A case management conference was held on June 1, 2007. The Court filed an amended minute order and case management order on June 8, 2007. This supplemental case management order addresses additional matters ordered by the court or agreed to by the parties:

I. Standing Order

All parties shall abide by the Court's Standing Order.

II. Service of Documents

E-filing through the Court's ECF system shall constitute service for all documents required to be served with the exception of initial service of process on a party.

III. Initial Disclosures Waived

The parties are not required to make the initial disclosures provided for by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26.

1 IV. Case Management Schedule

2 The parties shall abide by the schedule set in the Court's
3 June 8, 2007 amended minute order and case management order. If a
4 party seeks to change any previously set dates, it may do so
5 pursuant to Civil Local Rule 16-2(d) and (e).

6 A. Defendants' Document Production

7 All charges for copying documents produced by Defendants to 8 the Department of Justice or any Grand Jury for the purposes of 9 making copies available to Plaintiffs shall be paid by Plaintiffs.
10 All documents already produced in the DRAM litigation shall be 11 deemed produced in this case. Defendants shall produce to 12 Plaintiffs all documents they have produced to the Department of 13 Justice by June 15, 2007. Should any Defendant produce any 14 documents to the Department of Justice or any Grand Jury in 15 connection with the investigation of SRAM chips after June 15,
16 2007, such Defendant shall produce such documents to Plaintiffs
17 within 45 days of their production to the Department of Justice
18 and/or any Grand Jury. Documents produced, or deemed produced, in 19 this action shall be treated as outside counsel
20 attorneys'-eyes-only until entry of a stipulated protective order
21 governing production of the documents.

22 B. Service of Defendants

23 Plaintiffs shall complete service of the named domestic
24 defendants on or before June 29, 2007. Plaintiffs shall complete
25 service of the named non-domestic defendants on or before October 26 1, 2007, unless they can show good cause for failing to do so in 27 spite of their diligence.

1 C. Class Certification Discovery

2 Defendants may begin to take limited discovery from Plaintiffs
3 in preparation for drafting their oppositions to Plaintiffs'
4 motions for class certification.

5 D. Full Document Discovery

6 Full document discovery shall begin after the Court rules on 7 any motions to dismiss.

8 E. Full Fact Discovery

9 Full fact discovery, including but not limited to written
10 discovery and depositions, shall begin on June 8, 2008. The 11 parties reserve all rights to seek protective orders in the event
12 any party serves Requests for Admission.

13 F. Opt-Outs

14 In the event one or more classes are certified in these 15 actions, the Court sets a tentative deadline of July 15, 2009 for 16 any class member to opt out of the class. However, that date may 17 change, and the actual deadline for class members to opt out of any 18 class will be contained in the notice provided to class members.

19 V. Consolidated Motions

20 To the extent possible, Defendants shall file consolidated
21 motions. If necessary, individual Defendants may file supplemental 22 motions which do not repeat in any way the joint motions, but which 23 address only facts and law particular to a given Defendant. To the 24 extent possible, Plaintiffs shall do the same when filing their 25 oppositions to Defendants' motions.

26 VI. Protective Order

27 The model stipulated protective order found on the Court's
28

1 website is hereby entered in this case.

2 VII. Special Master for Discovery

3 The parties shall meet and confer regarding selection of a
4 special master to oversee discovery in this case, and report to the 5 Court.

6 VIII. Special Settlement Master

7 The parties shall meet and confer regarding selection of a
8 special master to oversee settlement efforts in this case, and 9 report to the Court. An initial settlement conference shall be 10 held on or before February 28, 2008.

11
12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
